Benjamin W. Hancock

Surry, Nov. 9.—Funeral services for Benjamin Walter Hancock, 78, who died Monday night at the home of his son, P. L. Hancock, were conducted Wednesday at the Rocky Hock Methodist Church by his pastor, the Rev. R. M. Robertson of the Surry Methodist Church, and the Rev. R. N. Hartness, pastor of the Rocky Hock Methodist Church. Interment was made in the family plot in the cemetery adjoining the church.

Mr. Hancock, who was a son of the late Joseph Henry Hancock and Georgie Richardson Hancock, had been in ill health for about a year. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Howard Edwards, of South Norfolk, and Mrs. Percy Pittman, of Dendron; five sons, Earnest Hancock, of Waterbury, Conn.; Walter Hancock, of Bangor, Pa.; Benjamin Hancock, of Richmond; Chris Hancock, of Wakefield; and Peyton Hancock, of Surry; two brothers, R. L. Hancock, of Newport News; and J. A. Hancock, of Dory, Southampton County.

half of my personal estate, unto her and her heirs forever. Also I lend unto my loving wife Lucy Hancock the use of the plantation whereon I now live during her natural life. I also give and bequeath unto Jesse Story and Jackson Story, Samuel Story, Benjamin Story and Samuel Story the tract of ^{land that I} purchased of Williams Beck lying west of Boon road also the tract of land I now live on after the death of my wife, to them & their heirs forever. I also give and bequeath unto Peggy Story, Polly and Jenny Story the other half of my personal estate that I have not already given away after paying my just debts to them and their heirs forever.
Lastly I appoint my friend Jesse Story and Benjamin Story, Executors to this my last will and Testament. In witness whereof I have here-unto ~~set~~ my hand and affixed my seal this third day of July in the year of our Lord
